

Dnyandeep Shikshan Prasarak Mandal,
Chandrapur
Dr. Khatri Mahavidyalaya, Tukum
Chandrapur

Dr. Wreath formation competition and Rangoli festival held at Khatri College

The local Dr. Khatri College, Tukum, Chandrapur organized a floral competition and Rangoli Festival competition in the college to wow the art qualities of the students on 13th September 2025. Students participated enthusiastically in this competition. Students created attractive rangolas by combining various colors and ideas. Chotubhai Patel High School teacher is Mr. as examiner for this competition. Sudarshan Barapatre and teacher of New English High School Mr. Sanjay Andraskar was invited.

The program was organized by the computer department of senior college, chemistry department, home economics department, women safety and empowerment department and cultural department of junior and senior colleges. Through this competition, students' artistic qualities were encouraged and provided an opportunity to preserve teammate and cultural values. The principal of the college Dr. J. M. Kakade Sir's Shubhaste competition was inaugurated. There were presence of department heads from all departments as well as many professors and large numbers of junior and senior colleges

