

About Department

The department established in the year Sept. 1991. The Department of Home Economics is also a part of the prestigious college.

Our Department gave the platform to students for various job opportunities in various fields like, Home Management, Food and Nutrition and child development as well as in various fields. Students have got opportunities to establish themselves as a Business women and service women etc.

Vision

To empower the students about family management, child development, self-employment as well as importance of nutrition in diet for healthy life.

MISSION

- To make the students aware of human development
- To prepare the students for self-employment through different projects.